Non-specialists overwhelmed by too many systematic descriptions of individual disease will welcome the new approach of ABC of Dermatology. Here the history, clinical appearance, and pathology of a few common key conditions are discussed and then used as a basis for comparison with other skin diseases. Also dealing in detail with allergic reactions, autoimmunity, acne, and infections, this handbook is fully illustrated in colour, providing a clear guide to assessment and treatment as well as an understanding of the histological changes underlying the clinical presentations.

Price: Inland £11.95; Abroad £13.50
