Conclusion: It was observed that IHC reactivity for TGF-β1 and IL17A was higher in patients who needed biologics after 5 years of following. Early increased synovial immunohistochemistry reactivity of IL17A and TGF-β1 in psoriatic arthriti- sis and rheumatoid arthritis patients could predict the need to use biologics.

Disclosure of Interests: None Declared.

Disclosure of Interests: None Declared.

Disclosure of Interests: None Declared.

Disclosure of Interests: None Declared.

Disclosure of Interests: None Declared.

Disclosure of Interests: None Declared.

Disclosure of Interests: None Declared.

Disclosure of Interests: None Declared.

Disclosure of Interests: None Declared.